with civilian Democrats, in order that the government may be honestly administered. This declaration from one of the nominees of the Democratic party shows what the party means by civil service reform.

The speaker said that dishonest men crept into all associations in life and declared that while he wanted not to charge the Democratic party with being dishonest as a whole, he did not think it would profit Gov. Hendricks to challenge a comparison of administration as between the Republican and Democratic party. He then quoted statistics showing the losses in the collection of public moneys under the Republican and Democratic administrations, and adverted to the conduct of Floyd, Thompson, Cobb and others, who he claimed had depleted the treasury, arsenals and Indian trust fund at the outbreak of the late war.

Logan then proceeded to discuss the financial policy established by the Republican party, under which he claimed that the evils heretofore experienced under the Democratic system had disappeared.

Speaking of the tariff, he said that the history of the Democratic party showed that on the subject of tariff it came into power would be full of suggestions of danger. The theory of the Democratic party that the market price of the products of this country should be guarded by the cost of like products in other countries would, if allowed to be consummated, bring the manufacturing of the country to an end. He then reviewed what he termed the Republican American protective system and claimed that it had fostered the wealth of the nation until now the aggregate value of all the property had reached the sum of $44,000,000,000, an increase of $30,000,000,000 in twenty years of Republican administration. Whether this was to be attributed to the Republican policy or not, it was evident that the country had never enjoyed such great prosperity or advanced in all things pertaining to the highest civilization as it had since the Republican party came into power and adopted this American policy. The free-trade theory he described as the Democratic English policy. He claimed that the commerce of the country under the management of the government by the Republican party had caused our exports to increase to more than twelve billion dollars, all of which had been produced by American labor.

The remainder of his speech was largely taken up in making comparisons as to the condition of the laboring and producing classes of the United States and those of Great Britain. He claimed the two parties were distinctly divided on the question of the suppression of polygamy, and declared that the Republican party would use all the legal power of the government to destroy "the twin relic of barbarism."

The crowd was so great about the stand occupied by Logan that speakers proceeded to occupy adjoining platforms and addressed portions of the crowd from them. Among others speaking were Gen. Oglesby, Gov. Hamilton and Senator Culberson. The scene in and about the park during the speaking was made brilliant by an unceasing display of pyrotechnics. The speaking was continued until 11:30 p. m., at which hour the great crowd began to disperse.

THE BUSINESS WORLD.

The Webster County Bank Fails on Account of Bad Speculations.

LANCASTER, Pa., Aug. 23.—The Lancaster Bolt company assigned today. Liabilities, $67,000.

DIRECTOR HUTCHINSON.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The story that Director Hutchinson of the Wall Street bank had disappeared is pronounced absurd by his friends. A telegram from the White mountains, where he now is, says: "I will return Monday afternoon."

He has settled most of his loan and his friends say that an amicable agreement regarding the remainder will probably be made. He has $250,000 unencumbered by real estate.

ANOTHER BANK GONE UP.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 23.—The Webster County bank at Marshallfield, Mo., has suspended and C. V. Brooks has been appointed receiver. The liabilities are reported at $40,000; the assets estimated at $15,000 to $20,000. All the school and county funds, amounting to some $15,000, were deposited in this bank. Speculation in grain is said to be the cause of the failure.

THE RECEIVER'S REPORT.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 23.—William Wallace, the receiver of the suspended banking-house of Fletcher & Sharpe, today completed his examination of the affairs of the firm. His report shows the liabilities to be $194,250; the actual assets $1,301,000. To the assets must be added $500,000, which will be realized from the property assigned by S. A. Fletcher, Jr. The nominal assets largely exceed the amount stated above. The probability is that the depositors will be paid at least 50 per cent.

THE BANKERS &amp; MERCHANTS TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—There have been reports lately that the Bankers & Merchants Telegraph company was embarrassed but the officers decline to make a definite statement. It is admitted that the company has a floating debt, but it is distributed among small holders. The talk has arisen chiefly from the fact that the employees' wages, due Aug. 15, have not yet been paid. It is explained in respect to this that the pay day by the United Telegraph company has not yet been settled upon and the receipts from the consolidated companies will not be received until September 1.

THE ALBION BANK.

ALBION, N. Y., Aug. 23.—The situation at the bank remains the same. Nothing can be known till the steel chest in the safe is opened. It is thought that it will be opened today. The bank officials and the persons in charge will say nothing. Those who had confidence in Warner's bank are fast losing it. The depositors are offering their claims for 20 and 25 per cent, but find no takers. K. Hart of the Orleans County bank, say they are prepared to pay all the bank owes, but there has been no run and none is expected. The sheriff, in the suit by W. A. Parmely, has attached everything found belonging to Warner, which is not much. No provision was made by Warner for the support of his family.

THE KNIT GOODS ASSOCIATION.
TROY, N. Y., Aug. 23.—The executive committee of the Knit Goods association has sent a circular to the manufacturers of knitted underwear in the United States announcing a meeting at Saratoga September 2, to consider a plan to control the production and strengthen the market, and to perfect an organization for mutual protection.

SHERMAN.

Decision in the Collinsville Local Option Case—A Colored Man's Cemetery.

A Prospective Pork-Packing Establishment—Telephones—Society Notes.

Special to the Gazette.

SHERMAN, TEX., Aug. 23.—The local option case from Collinsville, which we mentioned as on the mind of the county judge yesterday, was decided by his honor this morning and the result is a conviction of the defendant with a fine of $30 and costs as the penalty. An appeal will be taken to the highest court, to satisfy defendant's counsel of the justice of the decision in the face of the law and the facts. Perhaps no case under this law has ever been invested with more interest by the parties thereto than this has, and withal no little bitterness of feeling has attended its progress on the part of those who furnished the evidence and managed the proceedings.

Mr. Ed. Staples, local agent or manager of the Pan-Electric telephone in Sherman, says that he will soon have the assistance of a practical electrician to put up a test line in the city. And if this proves satisfactory as the one year correspondence saw in Fort Worth there is no doubt about its adoption over the Bell system now in use here, unless their machines are put in better working order than they are at present. Telephones are made to talk through and when the transmission of sound is so distinct as to render all messages doubtful and unsatisfactory the patrons will become tired and demand a change.

Grounds have been secured here to establish a pork packing establishment and new understand the buildings will be erected in ample time to be ready for the fall trade. A small house was run here last season, and the profitable result of that effort has inspired the present. A great many surplus hogs are raised in Grayson county annually, and more will be produced whenever a certain market like this is here to encourage the farmers.

The colored citizens of Sherman are preparing to purchase grounds and establish a cemetery of their own. The circumscribed limits of the city cemetery makes this step desirable to all parties.

John J. V. Cockrell returned home yesterday from Abilene where he went last week in company with his brother, Senator Frank Cockrell of Missouri. The judge has sold his home at Abilene as soon as he can build a home here. Having his sheep ranch well established near the city of the West, he may return to the practice of the law in his new home. The judge has great experience in the criminal practice and as a prosecutor of bad men, was a perfect terror in our courts. We wish himself and excellent family abundant success in the change of home.

Social dancing parties are very fashionable here this summer, notwithstanding the hot weather; the young folks don't seem to know it is hot, however, but keep up the exhilarating exercise as persistently as if the air were full of frost.

While on society matters it may not be amiss to say that we sometimes hear of a hunter after an item, meet with young ladies and gentlemen rambling together on our streets at such late hours as to provoke ungenerous remarks from the uncharitable who may meet them. Pretty girls with pretty ways and confiding and pure in thought as they are attractive in person, will always find gallants who are willing to devote hours to their entertainment and ramble around, without regard to time or place, in their fascinating company. But while they may compromise themselves and start the ready tongue of every Mrs. Grundy in town, if certain of our young friends see this they may take the hint to their own advantage; if not, we hope some parents may ask, "where is my daughter to-night?" and see to it that she is not leaning on her beau in a remote part of the city after "the clock in the steeple strikes 12."

Red Foxes.

Special to the Gazette.
MARSHALL, TEX., Aug. 23.—Dr. G. M. Phillips received four pair of red foxes from Festus J. Wade, secretary of the fair association of St. Louis. They will be turned loose for breeders.

The President.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—President Arthur left this morning on the steamship Earl Dispatch. He will remain a day or two at Newport, returning in about ten days.

The Irish National League.

BOSTON, MASS., Aug. 23.—Nearly all the delegates to the late Irish National League convention have left. Alexander Sullivan went to New York this afternoon. He speaks in Prospect park, Brooklyn next Thursday. The recent letter of Patrick Egan, declining to accept the salary fixed by the late convention for president of the league, has led to some misunderstanding. Many suppose that Egan's predecessor had a salary, the contrary is the case. Sullivan never received a cent of compensation, directly or indirectly. He visited twenty-two leading cities of the Union during his term of office and in many cases he paid his own expenses. In no case did he accept a compensation. It was the knowledge of these facts which caused the convention to attach a salary to the office. When Sullivan declined a re-election, he did so knowing that a salary had been provided for the ensuing year.

A CYCLONE.

Strikes the City of Dallas With Its Tail, Stealing Some Sand, Killing a Dog.

And Badly Frightening the Citizens, After Which It Takes to the Woods.

Special to the Gazette.

DALLAS, TEX., Aug. 23.—A strange phenomenon was witnessed here today by hundreds of people who gazed at it wonderingly. The sky was cloudy, the weather unusually close, suddenly a brownish-looking column shaped object was seen approaching from the northeast at a fearful speed at an altitude of several hundred feet. "A young cyclone," remarked some of the lookers on, while others compared it to an overgrown whirlwind. They had scarcely passed upon its character before it took an upward shot and was soon lost in the clouds. Those who saw it had not ceased gazing before it swooped down again as suddenly as it had disappeared and striking the earth near the south end of Lamar street, tore a hole in the ground. Rising again with a fearful velocity it carried with its large train a column of sand at least five hundred feet in length. The entire column was lifted as though it were a solid substance out of sight into the clouds. As it went up the wonderful column veered to the southwest. Where it struck on Lamar street it scattered showers of small stones and lifted a dog of Mr. George Loeval's some eighty feet in the air, when the dog fell, from the effects of which it soon died. Johnnie Mortan, a boy whom the dog was following, was within twenty feet of the whirlwind, cyclone or whatever it may be termed, and says it made a hissing sound like boiling water.

PLANO WIRELETS.

Special to the Gazette.

PLANO, TEX., Aug. 23.—E. Pilot of Houston is here on a visit. Cotton is needing rain badly. Quite a number of young folks from here will attend the camp-meeting at White Rock to-morrow. The shipments of grain for this season were 100 cars, the bulk of it going to New Orleans.

BOWIE WIRELETS.

Special to the Gazette.

BOWIE, TEX., Aug. 23.—Three carloads of beef cattle were shipped yesterday at this place by Wm. D. on, lying a few miles west of Bowie. The beavers were shipped to St. Louis. Eighty-one carloads of freight were received at Bowie during the month of July, and twenty-two carloads shipped from here during the same month. These receipts and shipments are less than for any month of the past year.

There is a good number of our farmers in town to-day. Business, however, is comparatively quiet. Peaches and melons have been plentiful on our streets for some time past. Peaches are small but of good flavor and an abundant yield. Weather very sultry, and thick clouds hovering around, but no rain here up to this writing.

GREENVILLE NOTES.

Special to the Gazette.

GREENVILLE, TEX., Aug. 23.—Greenville received her first bale of cotton to-day, which was raised near Lone Oak, in this county, by Mr. T. W. Johnson. It weighed 450 pounds and was purchased by Schiff, Reeves & Schlarid at 10¢. Through the energy of Mr. S. A. Hill, Greenville's livestock merchant, Johnson received $25 premium from the citizens.

An interesting camp-meeting is now in progress at Harrell camp-ground near Kingston.

We have here at this time a rush of insurance men, contractors and mechanics, but they are not out of place. The burnt district will be rebuilt at once and many other building lots heretofore vacant will be built up with handsome bricks. Our little city will not go down but will arise more beautiful than ever.

The delegates returned from the Houston convention this morning, much fatigued.

The weather is excessively hot.

Gov. Ireland.

GALVESTON, TEX., Aug. 23.—Gov. Ireland left for Austin on the early train this morning.

The city is pretty well deserted by the visiting delegates to the late convention, and affairs about the hotels have again assumed their normal condition.

The President.

NEW LONDON, CONN., Aug. 23.—President Arthur and party arrived at 10:30 to-night. The president subsequently held an informal reception at the Pequot house. He goes to Newport in the morning.

THE HORSE-BICYCLE RACE.

CHICAGO, ILL., Aug. 23.—The horse-bicycle contest was concluded to-night in the presence of a great crowd. Anderson, the horseman, winning the contest, having covered 574 miles in six days of twelve hours each. Prince on his bicycle made 455 miles and Armando, the pedestrian, covering 416; their aggregate score being three miles less than that of the rider.

No Signs of Pleuro-Pneumonia.

VIRGINIA, ILL., Aug. 23.—Doctors Paaren and Salmon made a thorough inspection of the Jersey herd owned by A. G. Epler of this city, where the supposed pleuro-pneumonia infection was supposed to have originated. They declare that they have found no signs whatever of contagion among any cattle in this herd.

A Suit for Damages.

Special to the Gazette.

DALLAS, TEX., Aug. 23.—Jemima Cook, the mother of John Cook, the deaf and dumb boy who was crippled in the Grand-Windsor hotel accident yesterday, filed a suit in the district court yesterday against W. E. Hughes, the owner of the building, and W. C. Howard, lessee, praying for damages for the injuries the boy sustained in the sum of $3,000.

The Illinois Central Railway.

CHICAGO, ILL., Aug. 23.—A statement is published here that the Baltimore & Ohio management have offered to pay $25,000 for the controlling interest in the Illinois Central railroad, and that there is likelihood that the offer will be accepted.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Treasurer Randolph says that no negotiations are going on for the sale of the Illinois Central railroad to the Baltimore & Ohio or any other railroad.

Zapata Horse Thieves.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

CARRIZO, TEX., Aug. 20.—This county has been infested for the past year or two with a band of horse thieves, and the county authorities on several occasions have attempted to bring them to justice. The thieves take horses from here to Mexico, sell them and bring back stolen horses and mules to this side and sell them.

They had just made a trip to Mexico with horses, and were returning with four mules and six horses, but were followed by the owners of the Mexican stock. The parties following the thieves crossed on to this side of the Rio Grande before the thieves did and the deputy sheriff with two mounted inspectors of customs from this port and a posse of citizens was on the watch for the thieves, but the thieves got wind of it and did not attempt to cross, but hid in a thicket on the Mexican side of the river. The Mexican party returned to the other side and commenced looking for the thieves.

discovered their hiding-place and made an attack on the camp this morning about daylight, capturing the whole outfit, thieves, arms, horses and saddles and stolen stock, and the thieves now languish in jail in Guerrero, Mexico.

The leader's name is Leandre Rodriguez or "El Rancho."

No rain has yet fallen, but it looks like rain.

The G. W. Curtis party is to have a branch office in Philadelphia if a small enough place can be found.

CHICAGO RACES.

CHICAGO, ILL., Aug. 23.—The match race between the famous pacers Johnston and Rebbell, for $5000 a side, occurred here this afternoon.

The weather was clear and cool, the track fast except a portion of the back stretch which was soft. Five thousand people were in attendance. Johnston was the favorite. In the pools before the opening of the race, and sold at twenty-five to ten, a large amount of money being wagered, the odds of Rebbell claiming the victory could not go three to four. The result proved that they were mistaken, as he was never headed, pacing very close to Little Brown Jug's time, 2:12, 2:11 and 2:12, which are the fastest three heats on record.

It was the opinion that Johnston had been driven out in each heat could have beaten this. Campbell, the owner of Rebbell, says that his horse was out of condition.

First heat—Johnston drew the inside position. After both horses had been warmed up they came down even and going well, and got word "go" at the first turn. Johnston began to draw away and increased his lead two lengths and reached the quarter post in 32 and to two open lengths along the back stretch to the half post in 1:36. Around the upper turn Rebbell drew up within an open length; the three-quarter pole was reached in 1:39. On the home stretch Johnston began drawing away, and as it became evident there was no chance of winning the heat Rebbell was pulled inside the stand and Johnston finished in a jog in 2:13.

Second heat—They were away well together at the second attempt. At the quarter post in 32 seconds; Johnston was an open length in front and their relative positions were not changed to the half in 1:35; at the end of five furlongs Johnston quickly opened
